Reviews

"Gregg could not have been more kind, honest and helpful!! He got my car in with no wait and updated me on his suggestions regarding the importance of various problems. Gregg offered me the option to choose the priority and what malfunctions could wait. I appreciated his thoughtfulness of the options and trusted his opinion and I ended up getting everything repaired. I just moved here, 3 days ago, and am so fortunate I found a man in his business whom I can trust. You'll always have a return customer here!!!"

TOTALLY TRIFLING TRIVIA

IN THE 1978 MOVIE "GREASE," WHO SAYS THE FAMOUS LINE, "TELL ME ABOUT IT, STUD?"

• SANDY

The musical "Grease" first hit theaters on July 16, 1978 & was an instant hit. Featuring John Travolta & Olivia Newton-John in the lead roles of Danny & Sandy, it's the story of a summer romance that blossoms during the stars' senior year of high school. In the finale, just before the hit song "You're the One that I Want" begins, Sandy utters the iconic line to Danny, "Tell me about it, stud." She drops her wholesome image to snag her greaser boyfriend, while Danny drops his leather jacket for a letterman's sweater to impress his wholesome girl. The result is nothing short of movie magic!

NATIONAL HAMMOCK DAY!

On July 22nd, relax in the shade and enjoy National Hammock Day. These portable, comfortable slings create excellent napping spaces no matter where you are!

Though the hammock dates back thousands of years to Central America where it protected people from creatures and dirt, the netted bed didn't find Europe until explorers brought it back in the 17th century. Not long after, the hammock found its way onto naval ships, providing comfort and maximizing space. After swaying across the oceans, the hammock eventually became a more leisurely item. Made from a variety of fabrics, it suspended between trees in backyards and at lake cabins. Easily packed into a backpack, hammocks became essential elements of survival. Hikers, campers and mountain climbers added the light and compact sleep sling to their kits.

So, whether you use a hammock to take a nap or as a convenient tool in your camping kit, July 22nd recognizes one innovative way to catch some sleep!
